Rotary returns to raise the bar in support of local projects

[SENECA FALLS, NY, 02/07/19] — More than 275 people attended the Seneca Falls Rotary Chocolate Extravaganza last year to successfully raise funds for scholarships and educational resources for students, schools, and area agencies of Seneca Falls and greater Seneca County to support ongoing programs. Community members spoke out and Rotary confirms that the 7th annual event will take place on Saturday, March 30th from 4pm - 7pm at the Seneca Falls/Waterloo Quality Inn.

All proceeds from the Seneca Falls Rotary sponsored event will fund local affiliated agencies and organizations including the Seneca County House of Concern, Pathway Home, Seneca Falls Library, the American Red Cross in the Finger Lakes, and The Seneca County United Way, among others, and projects providing supplies & dictionaries for Seneca County schools, the backpack program and many more.

Committee Chair Linda Knight reminds attendees that this year's vendors have signed up early with many offerings so event tickets are now available for purchase ahead of schedule from any Rotary member and will be available at the door starting at 3:30pm on March 30.
