2/7/2017—District 7120 Conference — Mike Kenyon

This year the District Conference will be May 19-21 at the Ambassador Center in Erie, PA (which is owned by a Rotarian). In door pools and waterpark are nearby.

Friday's events include the Parade of Flags and Charity casino fundraiser for Rotary International Foundation.

Saturday morning features breakouts and workshops. The afternoon is open for wine trail tour, casino, environmental center, golfing, luncheon cruise, shopping, waterpark, bike hike, picnic—loads of choices. Saturday evening includes the formal banquet with Cabaret Show featuring students from Eastman School of Music.

Sunday's schedule is the annual memorial for those Rotarians who have passed since last year's conference and brunch.

Check out more details and registration at the District's website or district conference.org. Cost is $205 and hotel for two nights runs about $300. A great fun, learning experience. Beals and Kolsins are already registered!

Highlights from previous weeks:

-Details shared about District Training Assembly in Newark on April 8th, 8am-noon. We pay for six people to attend. Let President Stephen know if interested.

-Peter Crego celebrated 28 years in Club and received his second Paul Harris, given every year and Jerry Macaluso received his fifth Paul Harris

-Tina Holden Ganzon gave an extremely informative talk on Diabetes

-We learned about the second annual 19K Women's Rights to Run that will take place on May 13th. Katie McIntyre from Generations Bank was here to share the details and tell of her opportunity to run in the Boston Marathon.

-Chocolate Extravaganza—we have such a dedicated team putting this together and each year it has grown in quantity and quality. Each Rotarian is expected to sell just five tickets (last year only 40% of the club sold tickets)

Trips/Happy $:

- ◇ Neil had a trip to Houston but watched the Super Bowl on TV.
- ◇ Wendy—trip to Long Island to visit with her 103 yr old grandmother and stopped at Taughannock Park, reported the falls are 90% frozen.
- ◇ JT—dome was rocking this week, but sad the Bills are never in the Super Bowl
- ◇ Peter S—had good holidays (that's how long it has been since we saw him)
- ◇ Dana—he and Josie had a great time in South Carolina and Florida but had to return early for business.
- ◇ Eric—taking Girl Scout cookie orders
- ◇ JT—happy for Dana and himself—the are both tax prep volunteers and learning new software.
- ◇ Dave M—looking forward to reading at Romulus then heading to Florida
- ◇ Liz—brought her raffle basket in her quest for queen of the Chocolate Extravaganza, reminded folks of the dictionary distribution and reading in Romulus on February 8th
- ◇ Ted—disappointed as he thought Liz was going to come in costume every week
- ◇ Jolene also has a basket for the Chocolate Extravaganza to help offset costs of the event.
- ◇ Birthday month for Jolene, we sang and had harmony and chachacha's too!
