Trips & Happy Dollars

Bob M-won 1st quarter on our super bowl pool, and is donating back to the club

JT-won the rest of the quarters and the game!

Wendy-annoyance dollar, her husband has a love of neckties and had over 150 of them. Her house rule is for every new tie that comes in, 2 ties have to leave. He took a bunch of them with him to Long Island. She started packing his ties this morning, and came upon 3 full drawers of ties, she found out that every time he was getting rid of ties, he was just moving them to his dresser drawers! He has over 200 ties!

Suzi-happy to be back and is enjoying her beautiful snowy view

Dave M-Happy that Tampa Bay won the Super Bowl, he doesn't really follow them but enjoyed the win, hoping for Bills win next year.

Cindy-Its her birthday month, and Jolene is willing to share!

Linda-her granddaughter Stella gave her a $15 donation to give to the House of Concern from Rotary, she was so excited to get her thank you note that she framed it!

Rich-happy he didn't bet any more money in any football pools because he would've won the same amount-$0!

Presentation-Emil Bove-the story of his family

His grandparents (mother's parents) came to Buffalo in the 1890's from Italy. His grandfather worked in a powerhouse in Buffalo for many years. His father's parents also came to Buffalo from Italy and worked in a steel plant. His parents and aunts and uncles worked very hard to get their education and many became doctors. His father was a medical director in an air force base in India. He came to Seneca Falls, because a group of Italians advertised in the paper for a doctor to come to Seneca Falls. His father died at age 67. Emil feels very fortunate for the upbringing and education he and his brother had as well as his sons in Seneca Falls.
