Club Announcements:

HOC Toy Drive continues, you can donate toys or bring money and Linda and Liz will shop, they are happy to come pick up the toys or money or you can drop off to them. Toys must be NEW and unwrapped.

The board has decided to resume full remote, Zoom meetings until further notice, we hope all will join us on Zoom.

Trips & Happy Dollars

Kathy had a great trip to California, enjoyed very empty flights, had a lot of rain and did a lot of chocolate shopping. Was able to see her newest niece

Susie-happy that Mike has come through his health issue with flying colors

JT-was going to have a happy dollar, but the SU game was punishment enough

Jerry-Looking forward to SU girls Basketball team, they should be ranked in top 5, they are an excellent team

David S-tomorrow he will be a grandfather for a 4th time! His daughter is being induced tomorrow

Dave M-this weekend they got a deer hunting, they hang out and snack on candy and his son got a deer. Got a nice young buck and will be making jerky out of it.

Rich-had some happy dollars, but we couldn't hear him, which made some club members happy! Eventually, he got his mic working and has a happy-sad-happy dollar, happy he was invited to lunch by President Linda, but sad because the invite was a mistake and then happy again because he found out she is a lousy cook!

Al- he is happy, healthy and safe. His family grew by 1 yesterday, his 2nd great-grandson was born, giving him a total of 9 grandchildren and 2 great -grandchildren.

Fred-happy about football

Linda-is decorated for Christmas, for her "grandkids", but really for her!

Thanksgiving Dinner-they have just over 600 dinners scheduled, where they usually do over 2000. They are also putting together 200 baskets for people for Thanksgiving that includes a chicken and the trimmings.

Holiday Toy Drive is going on now, and looking for donations of toys, pajamas or monetary donations (go directly to Liz or Linda, as they are doing the shopping). Toy drop off locations at Sauder's, Kinney Drugs, Bill Cram, Generations Bank (for PJ's), LNB, and Café 19. Very low on toys for toddlers and boy's clothes (new born and up!). They have received a lot of PJ's. Generations Bank-Jerry Graziano donated $600 so they could shop.

Donations are down, due to Covid. Donations pay the staff and help keep the pantry filled, please donate if you can! They usually get in 10-15k per month Oct/Nov, currently getting about $2000/month. Little Black Dress was cancelled, will not receive the $10,000 usually get from Wonderful Run. Sending donation letters to local people, and if you have suggestions for people/places she can contact, please share with Delores.
