Presentation: Kathy-International Day of the Girl

Sunday, October 11, 2020 was the International Day of the Girl

Rhoda Bement, an abolitionist in 1843-1844, confronted Rev Horace P Bogue, because he ignored an anti-slavery notice she had put on his desk. This altercation resulted in her going to trial and found guilty of disorderly & un-Christian conduct, she was expelled from the church.

In 1923, Alice Paul on the steps of the Presbyterian Church and proposed the Equal Rights Amendment, Men and Women shall have equal rights throughout the United States and every place subject to its jurisdiction. This has still not been enacted.

Elizabeth Cady Stanton lived in Seneca Falls with her husband, and her name was actually on the deed of her home in Seneca Falls.

And don't forget about the Suffergents, there were several male activists that participated in the advancement for Women's Rights

There are several historical landmarks to the Women's Rights Movement in and around Seneca Falls.
